ARTICLE 20

GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURES

Definition of Grievance

- 20.01 The grievance and arbitration provisions are designed to provide a formal mechanism for the resolution of disputes that arise between the parties during the term of the Collective Agreement.

The grievance process is designed to allow for a timely and thorough investigation of disputes arising out of an alleged violation of the Collective Agreement or dismissal from the Public Service, with the possibility of final resolution through third party binding arbitration.

The Employer and the Association agree that a grievance may arise concerning:

- (a) The interpretation, application, operation, contravention or alleged contravention of a provision of the Collective Agreement;

- (b) The interpretation, application, operation, contravention or alleged contravention of an Act, Regulation, direction or other instrument made or issued by the Employer and dealing with terms and conditions of employment;
- (c) The imposition of discipline, for just cause, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the disciplinary demotion or disciplinary suspension of an employee or the withholding of an increment;
- (d) Dismissal from the Public Service.

The Final Resolution of Grievance

20.02 Grievances arising out of the circumstances described in 20.01 which are not resolved during the grievance procedure described in 20.05, may be finally resolved as follows:

- (a) Grievances concerning 20.01(a), or 20.01(c) or 20.01(d) will be finally resolved by reference to arbitration in accordance with the procedure in 20.05;
- (b) Grievances concerning 20.01(b) will be finally resolved by reference to the Minister of Human Resources or designate.

20.03 Before invoking the grievance procedure, employees will make reasonable efforts to resolve the dispute with their immediate supervisors.

Employees will send a copy of each grievance to the Association and the Employer will send a copy of any replies to the Association.

Employees may present their grievances personally or through a Designated Representative.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 2.01(14), a substitute teacher has access to the grievance procedure.

20.04 The Association may invoke the grievance procedure at Step 3 if the Association alleges that a grievance has arisen that is not one that may be the subject of a grievance by an employee.

Grievance Procedure

20.05 The grievance procedure will consist of the following steps:

Step 1

The grievor, with the assistance of the Association, will notify the relevant Superintendent of the nature of the complaint within 20 working days of becoming aware of the incident giving rise to the complaint.

The Superintendent will enter into discussions with the grievor and the Association in an effort to resolve the complaint. If the complaint is not resolved within 10 working days of receipt of the complaint, the grievor and the Association may forward the grievance to Step 2.

Step 2

The grievor, with the assistance of the Association, will notify the relevant Superintendent of the nature of the complaint in writing within 40 working days of becoming aware of the incident-giving rise to the complaint. A meeting between the grievor, the Association and the Superintendent may be held within 10 working days of receiving the written grievance, if additional information is required to resolve it. The parties will review the circumstance of the grievance in an attempt to resolve it.

The Superintendent will provide to the grievor and the Association a written decision, with reasons, concerning the grievance within 10 working days of the meeting or 20 working days following receipt of the written grievance.

The grievance must include a statement of the following:

- (a) the name(s) of the aggrieved,
- (b) the nature of the grievance and the circumstances out of which it arose,
- (c) the remedy or correction the employer is requested to make,
and
- (d) the sections where the agreement is claimed to be violated.

Step 3

A grievor who is not satisfied with the decision at step 2 may, within 10 working days of receiving the decision, forward the grievance in writing to the Executive Director of the Association and the Director of Labour Relations.

The Executive Director of the Association and the Director of Labour Relations or their delegates will meet to review the grievance to attempt to find a solution, which they may recommend to the grievor and the Superintendent to resolve the grievance.

If the grievance is not resolved within 20 working days, the Association will notify the grievor and together they will determine whether the grievance will be forwarded to arbitration.

Arbitration

- 20.06 If a grievance has been presented at third level and is not resolved it may be referred to arbitration, if final level of the grievance is to arbitration.
- 20.07 The time limits for completion of each stage of the grievance and arbitration procedure may be extended by mutual agreement of the Association and the Employer or the employee and the Employer if the Grievor is an individual employee.
- 20.08
- (1) The Arbitrator has all of the powers granted to Arbitrators under Section 12 (1) (a) of the Arbitration Act in addition to any powers in this Agreement.
 - (2) The Arbitrator will hear and determine the grievance and will issue a decision. The decision is final and binding upon the parties and upon any employee affected by it.
 - (3) The Arbitrator will sign the award. Copies will be given to the parties to the dispute.
- 20.09 The Arbitrator does not have the authority to:
- alter or amend any of the provisions of this Agreement, or
 - substitute any new provisions, or
 - give any decision contrary to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, or
 - increase or decrease salaries or allowances.
- The Arbitrator has the authority to determine whether any matter is arbitrable.
- 20.10 The Employer and the Association will each pay one-half of the remuneration and expenses of the Arbitrator. Each party will pay its own expenses.
- 20.11 An Arbitrator may determine that an employee has been dismissed, demoted or suspended contrary to Article 18.09, and may direct the Employer to reinstate the employee without any loss of salary and benefits.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Arbitrators may make any order they consider fair and reasonable having regard to the circumstances and terms of this Agreement.

This is without limiting the generality of the powers granted to Arbitrators under Section 12 (1) (a) of the Arbitration Act.

- 20.12 As an alternative to the formal arbitration process set out in 20.06 to 20.11, by mutual agreement of the parties a grievance may be referred to someone who will hear the grievance and at the conclusion of the hearing, give a written order without reasons.

These decisions may not be used to alter, modify or amend any part of the Collective Agreement, and are made without precedent or prejudice to similar or like cases.

The written order will be final and binding upon both parties and no further action may be taken on that grievance by any means.

A2.03 Before appointment to the teaching staff of the Government of the Northwest Territories, the teacher submits proof of qualifications, for certification purposes, to the hiring Department of Education, Culture and Employment. The TQS will decide appeals of placement on the salary grid.

- (4) The TQS advises the Department of Human Resources, the Superintendent and the teacher of the placement.

A2.05 Original documents or official validated copies are necessary as proof of qualifications.

A2.06 Teachers being paid at Categories 4, 5 or 6 when this Agreement is implemented will continue to be paid within their appropriate pay level until their academic qualifications meet the requirements of a higher Category.

- A2.08 A teacher who does not have a university degree and who completes university courses leading to a complete year of university education as of the date of ratification of this Agreement will receive a pro-rata allowance for the portion of the years work which has been completed.

This amount is calculated by multiplying the fraction of the year's work completed (as identified by the TQS) by the difference between the salary of the current Category in which the teacher has been evaluated and the next highest Category.

Example:

As identified by the TQS: Teacher Category – 3 + 1/10 pro rata:

Teacher Experience – 21 years

Calculation from the Grid:

Category 4/Step11 – Category 3/Step 11 = Difference

1/10 pro rata = .10

Allowance = Difference X .10

The Employee must provide to the Superintendent, a criminal record check and a vulnerable person's screening check upon hire, and as part of the certification and recertification process for every teacher; the Employer may request criminal record checks at other times, depending upon the circumstances.

THE GOVERNMENT OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES AND THE
NORTHWEST TERRITORIES TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION
STRENGTHENING TEACHER INSTRUCTIONAL PRACTICES

The Association and the Employer through two recent teacher workload studies have discovered that NWT teachers on average are working over 50 hours per week.

Part of the reason for the hours worked by NWT teachers is due to both the total number of instructional hours and the number of instructional days currently required of teachers per school year. Teachers and students in the NWT have among the longest instructional hours and most instructional days in the country.

The Association and the Employer have concerns about the effectiveness of this current practice. Research shows that increased instructional time does not necessarily lead to higher student achievement.

Things that do have a positive impact on teacher effectiveness and improved student outcomes include:

- time for teachers to adequately plan lessons and learning activities to meet the diverse academic needs within their classroom,
- an increased focus on targeted, collaborative professional learning opportunities,
- a school year that recognizes local realities, including cultural cycles, and
- a school year that avoids long breaks in student learning.

During the life of this Collective Agreement, the Association and the Employer agree to work together to explore a range of evidence-based possibilities that may have a positive impact on teacher effectiveness and improved student outcomes. This could include changes to the Education Act and the implementation and subsequent evaluation of structured pilot projects.

These pilot projects would include a focus on redirecting up to 100 instructional hours per school year, in order to bring instructional time more in line with the Canadian average and explore models that provide time for teachers to complete professional duties such as planning, reporting and professional learning within the regular school day or school week.

There is recognition by both the Association and the Employer that ongoing training and development of teachers, and the ability for teachers to plan, assess and work with colleagues in developing and planning their instructional practices are key in order to achieve teaching excellence. This in turn may have a strong positive impact on student outcomes.

The Association and the Employer agree to also work collaboratively to help education authorities and schools develop new ways of incorporating teacher planning, assessment and reporting and professional learning into the regular school day or school week.

During the 2016-2017 school year, the GNWT and the NWTTA will develop a workplan that includes the following:

- During the 2016-2017 school year, the GNWT and the NWTTA will develop options for legislative change that re-direct up to 100 hours of instructional time per school year.
- During the 2016-2017 school year, the GNWT and NWTTA will develop a process to identify pilot projects related to redirecting up to 100 instructional hours per school year.
